

Quintin Blair

Quintin graduated Magna Cum Laude from the William F. Harrah School of Hospitality administration at the University of Nevada Las Vegas with a minor in Marketing. Upon graduating in May of 2009 Quintin enjoyed a successful, albeit short-lived career in Real Estate before the family business brought him home to Cody for good in 2014. Currently, Quintin works as the Chief Marketing Officer for Blair Hotels; during the summer months, he holds the prestigious position of “lead porter”.

Quintin is a member of the Inbound International Travel Association (IITA) Advisory Council, serves as a director on the Wyoming Office of Tourism (WOT) board, as well as the Park County, Hot Springs County and Big Horn County lodging tax boards. He is also a member of several national travel trade organizations including the United States Tour Operators Association (USTOA), the American Bus Association (ABA), the National Tour Association (NTA) and Rocky Mountain International (RMI). In addition to serving on the Cody Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Quintin also volunteers on the Buffalo Bill Art Show and Sale Committee as well as the Cody Culture Club.
